INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE OF DENTISTS
History

The International College was founded on July 9th, 1928 as a result of two dentists: an American, Louis Offofy, and Japanese, Tsurukichi Okumura, each having a desire to establish a communications network of professional and scientific information with dentists in other countries.

College Motto-
Recognizing Service and the Opportunity to Serve
The College was created for these purposes:

To recognize ability

To advance the art and science of dentistry

To honor meritorious service
Current Objectives

1. To provide a universal forum for the cultivation of cordial relations with the profession.

2. To foster the growth and diffusion of dental knowledge

3. To recognize distinguished service to the profession and to the public worldwide.
4. promote post-graduate study and research in the field of oral health

5. To contribute to the advancement of the profession of dentistry internationally.

6. To encourage and support projects of a humanitarian nature.

7. To uphold the highest standard of professional competence and personal ethics.
8. To assist in preserving the highest public perception of the profession

9. To perpetuate the history of the profession and maintain its dignity and stature
ICD-Fellowship (FICD) is the first of several honors granted by our College. It is our fundamental Honor and also confers membership to the organization. ICD Fellowship is awarded exclusively, through invitation only to those individuals showing outstanding contribution to their profession and demonstrating service and opportunity to serve.
Life Fellowship

- This recognition is a privilege bestowed on Fellows and Masters who, throughout their lives, have served the College, but due to, for instance, their age or a disabling medical problem, have limited activity or income. Each Section may have its own criteria for Life recognition.
Emeritus Award and Honorary Fellowship

- Emeritus is restricted to Fellows and Masters who have retired as ICD Council members.
- Honorary Fellowship is conferred by a Section on an individual, other than a Fellow of the College who has rendered conspicuous service to the cause of Dental Science or contributed to the promotion of the Dental Profession.
Honorary Fellows

- Names of Honorary Fellows
Master of the I.C.D. is a high honor that may be granted to Fellows who have rendered extraordinarily conspicuous and meritorious service to their Section AND the College. It must be approved by the International Council and the nomination for this high honor can only be submitted by the Candidate’s Section.
Master Fellows Section XI

- Names of Masters
• This award may be granted to a Fellow, District, Region or Section that have exhibited outstanding and significant contributions to the Dental Profession for the advancement of International understanding and goodwill. (Since 1985, seven Fellows and three Sections have received the honor)
